

5 Major risk factors of Alzheimer's disease

- The primary risk factor is age
- The incidence is higher in women due to women living longer
- Down syndrome is correlated with Alzheimer's
- Family history can increase risk
- There are two categories of genes

